

27-3-20

Dear All

The Music and Drama teachers are continuing to teach (remotely) during the school closure. This hopes to ensure that if we need to take the RIAM exams digitally/remotely, we'll be prepared.

We have a number of ways of continuing learning:

1. You can send a video link of you performing your piece to me via email and I will give you notes to work on for the week.
2. We can arrange a live video conferencing session via Zoom, Google Meet or WhatsApp.
3. As you are all senior students, you need to read both plays and research the authors- many books have gone online for free - or you can order them online. I will set questions for each Grade group for you to work through.
4. Depending on your grade you need to prepare a mime/improv or be ready to do a quick improv (G8). I can set you titles and then you can send me a video link of your work, I'll give feedback etc.

In order to do a live one-to-one session we need PARENTAL PERMISSION, please use an appropriate room like a living room or study. Parents are welcome to sit in on the session.

Those that were due to do Practical Music exams, which have been cancelled by the Department, have been offered the choice between continuing practical lessons or receiving theory tuition to work towards their Music Academic exam.

Please do not hesitate to email me on k.oreilly@thekingshospital.ie with any questions/permission/queries.

I continue to wish you all the best.

Kerrie O;Reilly

Head of Arts, Culture and International Students