Quality resources for online research are available through Scoilnet, the Department of Education's portal for students in Ireland.

1. Scroll down for access to World Book - an online encyclopaedia. It is a quality resource with lots of additional features.

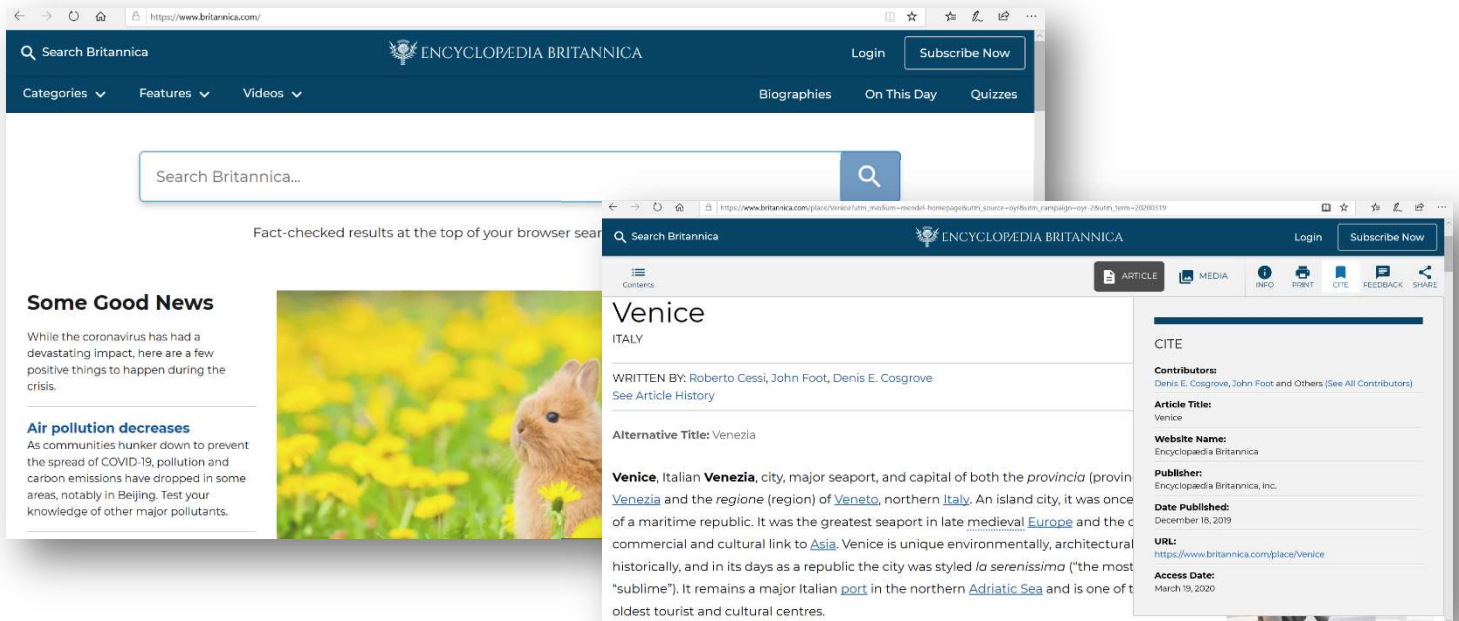

But bear in mind it's American, so when you search for Civil War, for example, the American one will be the first option. The spelling is American too so watch out for that issue.

Any problems accessing the above, please contact library@thekingshospital.ie

2. Britannica has gone online for free but with advertising. It is still a reliable resource with the additional features of Citation/Bibliography maker, as with World Book. English spelling.

Now you have time to compare the facts from other websites and an opportunity to evaluate your sources.

Enjoy the exploration!
